

2023 Outstanding Woman in Agriculture Award Application

Outstanding Woman in Agriculture Award

Purpose of Program:

- The Pennsylvania Farm Bureau Women's Leadership Committee is seeking a woman who, through hard work, creativity and perseverance, is positively contributing to agriculture.
- The woman being nominated must be a Farm Bureau Member
- One nomination per county
- Be as detailed as possible, listing dates & years of service. Feel free to contact nominee to make application as accurate as possible.

Answer the following questions in this packet:

- If the nominee is a farmer, please describe her farming operation
- List any other contributions to agriculture that she may be involved in
- List other committees or organizations that the nominee is a member of
- Describe any community service involvement
- Please include the reason your nominee should be chosen as this year's Outstanding Woman In Ag

Submission Deadlines:

July 1 - Please submit this application to your County Women's Leadership Chair by July 1. If your county does not have a WLC Chair appointed, please submit the application to your County President. From there, the county should select ONE winner to forward on to the district level.

August 1 – Once your county has chosen a winner, please submit the signed winner's application to your District WLC Rep by August 1. Once the county entries are received, the WLC District Rep will have them judged to choose a district winner to be forwarded on to the state level. Once a district winner is chosen, the WLC District Rep may work with her to get her application to a good place for submission.

If your district does not have a WLC Rep appointed, please submit the application to PFB Member Services division at memrel@pfb.com or PO Box 8736, Camp Hill, PA 17001-8736.

September 1 – Once the district winner is chosen, please submit the signed winner's application to the state office by September 1.

If you have questions while filling out or submitting this form, please contact Michele McMinn, WLC Committee Chair, at michelemcminn85@gmail.com or 814-594-7747.
